California Grown, Belizean Owned Wines

From a Construction Worker to an Award-Winning Winemaker

Joseph Smith affectionately known as Flinkas, was born and raised in San Ignacio Town, Cayo District, Belize in a large family with 13 siblings.

In 1999, Joseph began his journey in winemaking by joining Barry Gnekow in a winemaking consulting business, traveling extensively to California's diverse wine regions. Over the course of four years, Joseph gained comprehensive knowledge in every aspect of winemaking from grape harvesting to fermentation process monitoring and further deepened his expertise by enrolling in a winemaking program at the University of California Davis. This led to multiple job offers from various wineries.

Joseph settled in Lodi, California, working notably for Klinker Brick Winery. 7 of his wines earned over 90 points in Wine Enthusiast in 2017 and made Wine Spectator's Top 100 list in 2020, a first for the Lodi region in 38 years.

Wine Smith is a story of dreams, determination, and a dash of family love. And every bottle opened is a toast to this incredible journey.
